Get ready to binge watch and cringe!

Highest viewing numbers in recent TV history for an original Canadian Comedy.

Smart, self-deprecating and side-splittingly funny all at the same time, this hit series turns even the most mundane moments into hilariously awkward comedy gold. We dare you not to lol!

French Canada's answer to Seinfeld, Martin Matte's television series is about, well... nothing! Rien du tout! Add a maid, a dentist, a doctor, a toaster salesman, a filthy rich star and what have you got? Off the wall, outlandish humor that takes the most tedious, mundane, everyday event and pushes it beyond the limit! It's a series that walks that fine line between playful innocence... and a playful eagerness to challenge contemporary family and social taboos.

"...Well-written, well-acted and well-directed. Full of self-mockery. Even more, it's touching, irreverent and intelligent at the same time..."
